Prologue

Through the thousands of deliverance experiences we have had over the past decade we have learned that the power of Jesus is still active in this world today, that Jesus allows us to use His power and authority to cast out Demons, and that when we do use His power to cast out Demons, that people are easily and quickly delivered from Demonic attachments and possessions. Not only that, but we have also seen thousands of miracles of healing, miracles of blessing, miracles of salvation, and much, much, more, and all in the power and authority of Jesus. And why does Jesus perform these miracles through us? Because He has promised that "...whatever you ask of the Father in my name, He will give it to you." John 16:23. Additionally he has commanded us "...And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand. Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils..." Matthew 10:7-8.

Many of these truths are understood by believers in Jesus throughout the world, and in many different denominations. What is often no longer understood or is lost through assimilation to the Western world view, is that we as believers have been empowered to initiate these miracles through commanding them to happen in the power and authority of Jesus. Of course the person who is initiating the miracle must be someone who has accepted Jesus as Lord and Savior and become born again. No one can call on the power and authority of Jesus to perform miracles if they haven't first had this sacred experience with Jesus. But for the person who is a born-again believer, Jesus gives them His power and authority to perform miracles, to include the miracle of deliverance.

The purpose of this book is to bring these truths back from the brink of being almost completely lost and forgotten and put them squarely back in the hands of all believers everywhere who have a faith that is strong enough to walk in them. My prayer is that you, the person who holds this book in your hands, will be one of those people. I pray this for you, in the power and authority of Jesus.

INTRODUCTION

Chapter 1 – A Brief Discussion of Demons

1. Where Do Demons Come From?

While there are many theories of the origin of Demons, my personal theory is that Demons are the disembodied spirits of the pre-flood children of the fallen Watcher Angels and human women, the beings sometimes referred to as “Nephilim”. While no one can know the exact numbers of these beings, we can know that right before the flood, they constituted almost the entire population of the world except for Noah and his family.

Some people maintained that Demons may be some form of “Ghost” or the disembodied human soul that has for some reason failed to “crossover”. However, we strongly disagree with this view because the Bible makes it clear that “...it is given unto man once to die and then comes the judgement.” Hebrews 9:27. To help support this contention are thousands of documented Near-Death Experiences (NDE’s) which suggest that at the time of death, the human soul is almost immediately transported to another dimension, far outside of this world, and that dimension is either heaven or hell.

Still others contend that there really are no such things as Demons at all, but instead only some form of misinterpreted and general “negative energy” that can attach to and negatively affect human beings. Aside from the ample Biblical evidence for the existence of Demons, to include the witness of Jesus himself, we can also now call on a mountain of scientific evidence from Paranormal Investigators.

Paranormal investigators today have a wide variety of tools they can use to not only measure the presence of Demonic spirits, but to also interact with them verbally and kinetically. Paranormal Investigators have caught the activity of Demons on voice recorders, still photography, video photography, and a number of other electromagnetic measuring devices. Today, thanks to modern Paranormal Science, we can not only prove that Demons exist, but we can prove that these Demons are powerful, intelligent, and evil entities that can cause great harm to human beings.

2. Why Do Demons Attach to Humans?

Unlike all other forms of life on earth, Demons are essentially made of energy, not matter and energy. Since, as pure energy beings, Demons don't and can't eat any kind of material substances, their "food" is only energy. For this reason Demons are constantly looking for sources of energy in their environment to "consume".

There can be many types of energy available in the environment that Demons can feed on. Crystals for example, are a kind of natural energy battery, and Demons can draw energy from them. Of course there are also a wide variety of man-made energy sources, such as batteries, and light bulbs, and Demons can feed on these types of objects as well. Living things are also a rich source of energy for Demons, and that's especially true for animals and humans.

But overall human beings are the greatest source of energy for Demons because they can be triggered to produce certain types of dark energy. Through various types of manipulation Demons can cause a human being to produce a wide variety of dark energy emotions and actions, emotions and actions such as hate, fear, depression, confusion, greed, pride, and much, much more. These kinds of dark human emotions produce energies that are strong food for Demons, and, because Demons can attach to humans, they can feed on those sources of dark energy time and time again. In fact it can be said that Demonic possession occurs when a Demon feeds continuously on the dark energy produced by a specific human being.

3. How Do People Get Demonic Attachments?

Demonic attachments can occur both by accident and on purpose, and in both cases through a variety of experiences. For example, a person walking through a haunted house or similar area of high Demonic activity, can easily and unintentionally obtain a Demonic attachment by accident because the Demon simply sees that person as a readily available source of energy. In fact it can be said that for Paranormal Investigators, this is truly an occupational hazard! Another example is to be involved in an unrepented sin of some kind, such as hate, gambling, or drug and alcohol use. In these cases people can unknowingly open a portal to the Demonic through their sins, and then when a particular Demon that is drawn to that kind of dark energy sees that open sin portal, they will attach to the person. In this case the person did not intentionally seek a Demonic encounter, they just left themselves open to it.

On the flip side, people who practice witchcraft, use “Spirit Boards”, call on ancestor spirits, or attend seances can easily obtain a Demonic attachment through actions intended to bring them into direct contact with Demons. To be fair, many people involved in these kinds of activities only expected to meet a “spirit” and call on that spirit for help, guidance, or power, but nevertheless, because they purposely set about to conjure up a spirit (Demon), it can be said that they purposely and intentionally invited that Demon to attach to them.

4. What Effects Can Demons Have on People?

Demons can have long lasting and permanent effects on human beings. Demons can cause or accentuate panic attacks, nightmares, depression, suicidal thoughts, suicide attempts, hatred, murder, serial murder, rape, pedophilia, addiction, mental illness, racism, and much, much more. For this reason it’s very important to detect and remove any Demonic attachments as quickly as possible.

Now some may say that these kinds of disorders can also be caused by sin alone, without any Demonic involvement, and this is certainly true, but we have seen that habitual and unrepented sin can and will open a portal to the Demonic. A sin portal, once opened, does provide an easy way for a Demon to attach to someone and then, once the Demon is attached, it will do it’s best to greatly amplify those kinds of sinful thoughts and behavior, as well as to make it much more difficult for that person to overcome and put away the sin that originally opened the portal.
